Good Shepherd Baptist Missions operates out of a local church and works through local churches across America to help keep evangelism moving. The great commission is hindered when Pastors, Evangelists, and Missionaries, who operate near the limits of their financial capacity, are faced with an insurmountable difficulty. Good Shepherd Baptist Missions desires to bring equipment, services or money from local churches to the aid of full-time Christian workers in need.

Perhaps you have mechanical, electrical or carpentry skills. Maybe you have an extra bedroom in your home where a missionary on deputation could stay. If you are willing to give materials, equipment or finances to help keep God's men winning souls, ask yourself-- "What can I do?"

As you are led by the Holy Spirit, please complete the enclosed form today and return it to the address at right. God greatly uses and blesses those who are willing to give Him of their time, service, and finances. Don't let Satan slow down evangelism in these last days. Do your part to see that evangelism is not hindered by a lack of funds, services, or equipment.

There is a great need and you can help.
