Dear Praying Friends of Good Shepherd Baptist Missions,

All eighteen classes that constitute the Pastors track for the Online School for Ministry Leaders were completed and posted to the school Website about mid-February before starting the Onsite Pastors Training School at Riverview Baptist Church in Southside, Alabama. I thought that we would be ready to open the school to the public almost immediately after that was done BUT we still have a substantial amount of Website work to complete before it will be ready for public use. My what a learning experience!! This past week Bea set up the Website so that when one course is finished (each course has several classes) then participants can obtain a key and proceed to the next prescribed course. Students going through the school in this prescribed manner will earn a Certificate of Training and be eligible for university credit. More importantly, they will obtain invaluable Biblical and practical ministry instruction. A wrench was put in the cogs this week when I told our Webmaster that I wanted those not seeking a certificate to be able to take only specifically desired classes. Every decision like this takes time to make and every minute process takes time to set up and make the Website work. The school is free of charge but donations can be made through PayPal which is now set up on the Website thanks to Lynn Kizziah and Bea Kennedy.

Our Webmaster, Bea Kennedy, is having to work a full-time job, take care of her home and then do as much work as possible with GSBM. We need a volunteer to assist in maintaining our main GSBM Website. If you are skilled in the area of Website work and would like to volunteer to assist, please contact me. The need is large.

I think that the Pastors Training School at Riverview Baptist Church last month was the best ever. The school had a spirit of excellence in every area and the Holy Spirit moved during the entire three days.

Meige is now preparing the Missionary Training School manual as the 18th annual MTS is scheduled for April 13th through the 18th in Spencer, Ohio. The school is hosted by First Baptist Church of Spencer, Ohio where Jeff Mullet is the pastor and assisted by Victory Baptist Church in Lodi, Ohio where Joe Williams is pastor. I am scheduled to preach at First Baptist Church on the April 13th, lead in the week long production of the MTS and then preach at Forest City Baptist Church in London, Ontario, Canada (Pastor Gordon LeGrow) on the 20th of April before heading back south to work on the Online School for Ministry Leaders.

We are in the process of buying airline tickets for the four men who will be teaching in the Pastors Training School in the Ivory Coast with Missionary Bob Mach during the first week of September. The teaching team for this school includes myself, Joe Williams, Steve Williams and Roger Hain. Much money is being invested in this school that has huge potential for the cause of Christ. Teaching times will be protracted substantially above the stateside PTS' because of having to use interpreters. Please begin praying with us for the Holy Spirit to control in every aspect.

Sincerely,

Brother Easter
